

About RadiusGroup

RadiusGroup is a system integrator specialized in the development of integrated hardware, software and engineering solutions for businesses.

The company provides IT services in the following areas:

- engineering infrastructure (uninterruptible powers supply and cooling systems);
- IT-infrastructure (office networks and equipment);
- business applications (Enterprise Content Management systems);
- data center services (Colocation, Dedicated server, Web-hosting, Cloud Services).

By combining comprehensive approach, high quality services, time-cost optimisation with the best practices, RadiusGroup is able to deliver the most efficient solutions for customers. The company has Certificate of ISO 9001-2000 Quality Management System, other necessary certificates and licenses including FSB licence.

The excellent logistics system allows company to work in all Russian regions and fulfill projects in more than 200 cities and towns all over Russia.

Our Team

RadiusGroup was founded in 1999 and is led by Dmitry Marinichev, which is also the Russian Internet Ombudsman since 2014. The company's team consists of more than 100 dedicated certified professionals with high skills and wide expertise in data center development. RadiusGroup pays particular attention to maintain high professional standards amongst employees, their training, and new competence development.

Our Customers

RadiusGroup is constantly expanding portfolio of solutions and customer base.

